THE PUBLIC POUND " introduced January 5, 1944, after reading by title was amended on motion of Councilman Spooner, Coffield second, in the following manner, to-wit: Sections Numbers 4 and 14 to read:

" Section 4. Every person owning or having possession of a dog or cat shall pay a license fee for the calendar year beginning January 1st or for any fractional part of such year as follows:

For each male dog	$ 1.00
For each female dog that has been spayed, . . .	$ 1.00
For each female dog not spayed.	$ 4.00
For each male cat	$ 0.50
For each female cat	$ 1.00

The license fee shall be paid to the poundmaster as soon as such dog or cat shall come into the possession of the owner or person having possession thereof and annually thereafter on or before the first day of January of each succeeding year.

The owner or person having possession of such dog or cat shall provide it with a suitable collar upon which shall be securely attached a license tag issued by the poundmaster on payment of the license fee showing the license number and the year for which the dog or cat is licensed. The receipt for payment, a copy of which shall be kept on file, shall bear the same number as the license tag, also the name of the owner and the name and description of the dog. "

" Section 14. Any dog not redeemed within the period of 100 hours from and after the time of impounding may be sold at such price as the poundmaster may deem obtainable, or may be given away if,
in the opinion of the poundmaster, such animal has no sale value.
No notice of sale or advertising of any kind shall be required and all unredeemed dogs or cats which have not been sold or given away after the expiration of said 100 hour redemption period shall forthwith be destroyed by the poundmaster in his discretion. "
